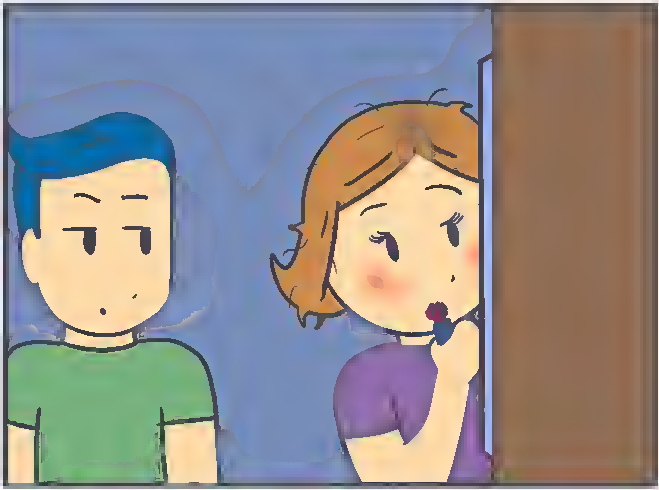
NICHOLALALA

I now go to a hairdressers in Seoul



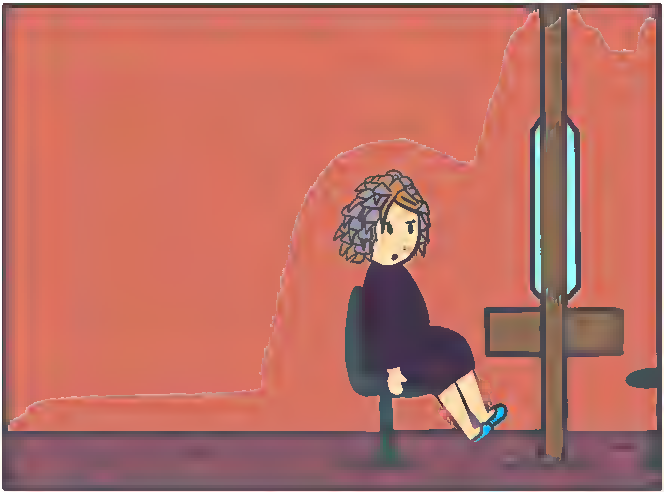
Why are you putting so much makeup on?

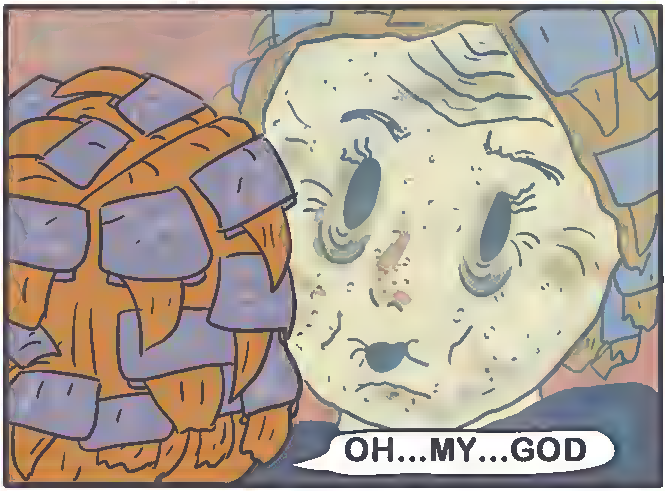
Because I have to look at myself for 2 hours in the mirror at the hairdressers

So I will stare at myself for 2 hours and realise all my flaws and feel bad

The lights are so harsh!

Make it better! Make it better!
But you look fine...





OH...MY...GOD

It didn't work!

HAH! I knew that wasn't your natural colour!
